Sink your teeth into this gripping thriller. Six friends are holidaying in France when they meet beautiful, charming girl-next-door Severine. Each is captivated by her. Then, Severine mysteriously disappears. A decade later, her body is found in a farmhouse and the friends find themselves under the spotlight. What really happened on that holiday?

Make or Break

By Catherine Bennetto

Looking for a brilliant beach read? You'll love this. Jess is whisked away on a surprise trip to South Africa by her long-term boyfriend Pete. She imagines sun, sand, wine and maybe even something sparkly for her finger... But the holiday doesn't turn out to be the fairy tale she expected. And when they return home, things only get worse. You'll laugh and cry along with every high and low. We loved it.
